

November Court 1762 192

And whereupon the said Samuel by William Hayward his Attorney complains that whereas the said Samuel on the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and at somerset county aforesaid delivered unto the aforesaid Daniel the aforesaid Negro man slave called Caesar of the price of one hundred pounds current money of Maryland to be safely kept and to the same Samuel when thereof afterwards he should be required to be redelivered whereby action did accrue unto the same Samuel to demand and have from the said Daniel the Negro man slave Caesar of the price aforesaid Nevertheless the aforesaid Daniel who often required the Negro man slave called Caesar aforesaid of the price aforesaid the said Samuel hath not redelivered but the same unto him the said Samuel to Redeliver hath altogether refused and Denysg still doth refuse and deny wherfore the said Samuel says he is wry gath damage to the value of one hundred pounds current money of Maryland and therfore he brings suitt so forth.

And hereupon the aforesaid Daniel Cullen by his attorney aforesaid comes and defendeth the force and injury whereto and prayes leave thereof to Imparle here until next court to be held at princeps Ann Town the third tuesday of March then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the aforesaid Samuel Miles here also aforesaid.

All which day here came as well the aforesaid Samuel Miles as the aforesaid Daniel Cullen by their Attorneys aforesaid and upon the aforesaid Daniel prays further leave thereof to Imparle here until next court to be held at princeps Ann Town the third tuesday of June then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the aforesaid Samuel here also aforesaid.

All which day here came as well the aforesaid Samuel Miles as the aforesaid Daniel Cullen by their Attorneys aforesaid and hereupon in the aforesaid Daniel prays further leave thereof to Imparle here until next court to be held at princeps Ann Town the third tuesday of August then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the aforesaid Samuel here also aforesaid.

All which day here came as well the aforesaid Samuel Miles as the aforesaid Daniel Cullen by their Attorneys aforesaid and hereupon the aforesaid Daniel prays further leave thereof to Imparle here until next court to be held at princeps Ann Town the third tuesday of November then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the aforesaid Samuel here also aforesaid.

All which day here came as well the aforesaid Samuel Miles as the aforesaid Daniel Cullen by their Attorneys aforesaid and hereupon the aforesaid Daniel as before defends the force and injury whereto and saith that he is not guilty of the premises as the aforesaid Samuel Miles above in his declaration hath alledged against him and of this he puts him self upon the country and so forth. And the aforesaid Daniel by leave of the court here and by force of the statute in that case made and provided further with that he the aforesaid Samuel his action aforesaid against him to have and maintain ought not because he says that at any time within those years next before the Imparlementation of the original will of him the aforesaid Samuel in this cause no cause of action did accrue to the aforesaid Samuel against the aforesaid Daniel by means of the premises in the Declaration mentioned and this he is ready to verify wherfore he prays judgement if the aforesaid Samuel his action aforesaid against him to have and maintain ought and so forth.

And hereupon the aforesaid Samuel Miles then and there his willt of debt aforesaid against the aforesaid Daniel Cullen did not prosecute with effect but voluntarily suffered his suit to be discontinued. Therefore it is considered by the court here that the aforesaid Samuel Miles take nothing by his willt and declaration aforesaid but that he and his pledges of prosecuting to wit John Doe Richard Roe are in meny and that the aforesaid Daniel Cullen go thence without day and further it is considered that the aforesaid Daniel Cullen recover against the aforesaid Samuel Miles

20 pounds of Tobaccos for his costs and charges by him about his defence in this part sustained to the aforesaid Daniel Cullen by the court now here according to the form of the statute in such case lately made and provided adiuged and that the same Daniel have theroft execution done.
